

CONTENTS OF THE FASCICLE

Page

I. TREATISES AND ARTICLES

1. Witold Wojtowicz, Tarda loquendi facultas – Gallus Anonymus’ Identity in the Context of Letters and Epilogues of “Gesta principum Polonorum”	5
2. Rolf Fieguth, French and Polish Invectives, Laments, and Songs. On Philippe Desportes’ Erotics and Jan Kochanowski’s “Lyricorum Libellus”	39
3. Anna Kochan, “Shall I Hide in an Empty Forest?” On the Translation and Interpretation of the Myth of Actaeon in Andrzej Zbylitowski’s View	69
4. Jacek Sokolski, Father Birkowski’s Rhinoceros, That Is Baroque Preacher’s Symbolic Plays with Reader	87
5. Krzysztof Obremski, Toruń Wedding Riddles: Comparisons – Imagery – Morality	99
6. Małgorzata Mieszek, Jan Bielski Dramatic Works against the Changes in Jesuitic Theatre in 18 th Century	119

Problems of Artistic Language

7. Roman Krzywy, Silvae and Silvas – a Literary History Gloss to the Misunderstanding	145
8. Wojciech Ryczek, Renaissance Theories of Figurativity: Peter Schade (Petrus Mosellanus)	153
9. Jarosław Nowaszczuk, Definition as a Source of Epigrammatic Argutia in Jesuitic Theory and Practice	173

II. MATERIALS AND NOTES

1. Roman Krzywy, “You Want to Be Terrible, but You Flee...” On the Commentary to Jan Kochanowski’s Muscovy Epinicions	185
2. Andrzej Borkowski, In the Circle of Anti-Jewish Literature in Old Poland – “Prognosticon or Recommendation of a Stinky Calf [...]”	195
3. Bogdan Stanaszek, Jan of Kijany, Januarius Sovizralius, Jan Dzwonowski – Two Pseudonyms, One Name? On the Identity of Plebeian Poet	207
4. Radosław Grześkowiak, An Anonymous Emblematic Work Based on Anton Wierix’s “Cor Iesu Amanti Sacrum” Cycle of Prints from the Second Half of 17 th Century	217
5. Aleksandra Oszczęda, From a Chronicle to a Silva. On the Problems of Manuscript and Print at the Beginning of 17c. Part 2: Maciej Strykowski’s Poem in Lvov Manuscript from the Ossolineum Library Collection	231

III. REVIEWS AND SURVEYS