

Contents

Introduction. Preserving memory – the truth of text and the truth of image (Agata Grabowska-Kuniczuk, The Institute of Literary Research of the Polish Academy of Sciences, Warsaw)	3
Marek Pąckiński (The Institute of Literary Research of the Polish Academy of Sciences, Warsaw) Reconnaissance, familiarising, incorporation – the place of photography in the popular scientific narrative and the plans for space domination at the turn of the nineteenth and twentieth century	9
Elżbieta Dąbrowicz-Płachecka (University of Białystok) Fragile presence. On the floristic-verbal note of Cyprian Norwid's 'Book of Memorabilia'	33
Beata Garlej (Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University in Warsaw) The Stefan Żeromski tropes (or traces) of passion	57
Marlena Sęczek (The Institute of Literary Research of the Polish Academy of Sciences, Warsaw) Traces of forgotten identity. On the role of sources in the biography of Janusz Korczak	77
Ewa Szkudlarek (Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań) Photographic portraits in Polish cinema: keepsakes, traces, props	103
Joanna Hałaczkiwicz (Jagiellonian University in Kraków) Scholarly editing in the face of technological progress illustrated with the example of Wacław Potocki's Moralia	129