

About the Authors

Paweł Brudek – PhD, received his doctoral degree from the Institute of History of the Polish Academy of Sciences. Member of the academic staff at the Historical Department of the Warsaw Uprising Museum. Research interests: military, political and social history of the First World War, the Polish Underground State 1939–1945, German occupation policy during the Second World War. E-mail: sabat@o2.pl.

Maciej Janowski – professor, Head of the Department of the History of Ideas and History of the Intelligentsia in the 19th–20th Centuries at the Institute of History of the Polish Academy of Sciences. Professor at the Central European University in Budapest. He is interested in the history of Poland and East-Central Europe from the enlightenment to the 20th century and in the history of ideas. E-mail: Janowskim@ceu.edu.

Adam Kożuchowski – DSc, assistant professor in the Department of the History of Ideas and the History of the Intelligentsia in the 19th–20th Centuries at the Institute of History of the Polish Academy of Sciences. Research interests: Central Europe in the 19th and early 20th centuries, and intellectual history. E-mail: akożuchowski@yahoo.com.

Włodzimierz Mędrzecki – professor, Head of the Department of the Social History of the 19th and 20th Centuries at the Institute of History of the Polish Academy of Sciences in Warsaw. Research interests: social history of the 19th and 20th centuries, historical anthropology. E-mail: w.medrzecki@wp.pl.

Jan Molenda – professor emeritus at the Institute of History of the Polish Academy of Sciences in Warsaw. Research interests: social and political history of the 19th and 20th centuries, national consciousness and peasant movements, source editing.

Ewa Nizińska – PhD candidate, preparing a doctoral dissertation at the Institute of History of the Polish Academy of Sciences, devoted to the history and post-war mythology of the Eastern Territories (on the example of Sambor). Research interests: social history and the anthropology of memory and materiality. E-mail: ewa.nizinska@gmail.com.

Andrzej Nowak – professor, Head of the Section for the History of Eastern Europe and the Empires of the 19th and 20th Centuries in the Department of the History of the 20th Century at the Institute of History of the Polish Academy of Sciences. Historian of Eastern Europe from the 19th–20th centuries; author of over 20 books on the history of Poland and Russia. E-mail: andrzejnowak2007@tlen.pl.

Jerzy Z. Pająk – DSc, professor at the Jan Kochanowski University in Kielce, Institute of History (Department of the History of the XIX Century). Research interests: social and political history of the 19th and 20th centuries, the history of Poland and Central Europe 1914–1918, biography, cultural issues. E-mail: jerzyzpajak@op.pl.

Mateusz Rodak – DSc, professor at the Institute of History of the Polish Academy of Sciences (Department of the Social History of the 19th and 20th Centuries). Research interests: the underworld in the Second Polish Republic, the history of crime and prisons. E-mail: mateuszrodak@yahoo.pl.

Katarzyna Sierakowska – DSc, professor at the Institute of History of the Polish Academy of Sciences (Department of the Social History of the 19th and 20th Centuries). Research interests: social history of the 19th and 20th centuries, especially the First World War and the interwar period, the history of women, gender history. E-mail: kasia.sierakowska@interia.pl.